

From Prince Edward County's Public Art Policy:

Public Artworks containing any of the following will not be permitted:

Content which:

- In light of generally prevailing community standards, is likely to cause deep or wide spread offense
- Is hateful and/or may incite hatred or violence against any person or identifiable group of persons
- May promote stereotypes or negative attitudes about any person or identifiable group of persons on a ground protected by the Ontario Human Rights Code
- Contains profane, vulgar, or offensive language
- Depicts violence, including, but not limited to:
 - (a) the depiction of human or animal bodies or body parts in states of mutilation, dismemberment, decomposition, or disfigurement, and (b) the depiction of weapons or other implements of devices being used in an act or acts of violence or harm on a person or animal; c) self-harm/suicide
- Depicts explicit sexual content; and/or Is criminal or gang related
- Promotion of tobacco products and/or cannabis use
- Copyrighted material without permission for use
- Designs that could negatively impact road safety
- In general, displays containing elements of advertising, promotion, branding, or product placement, and/or involving marketing campaigns, for a business, which are subject to By-Law 1122-2003, being the Sign By-Law for the Corporation of The County of Prince Edward, are not considered Public Artworks.