Agenda and Discussion

1 - Welcome & Approval of January 8th Meeting Minutes

2- Public Art Capacity building workshops

- All dates confirmed, contracts will be sent shortly and info will be gathered from facilitators.
- Launch plan: launch workshop series to County Arts Membership first- February 10th.
- County Arts Lab mailing list/Artscene and community listings will roll out next
- expecting the spots to go quickly, we will add a blurb to emphasize that if you've signed up and can no longer make it, to let us know
- March 21st, Answering the Call with Spark Box Studio
- April 25th, Making Artwork Safe + Inclusive: Structural + Accessible considerations for Public Art with Victoria Taylor
- May 2nd, Community Engaged Public Art with Hannah Doucet
- May 9th, Murals: From Concept to Wall with Jamie Janx Johnson

3 - Arrow Trail Call Draft

- Created in consultation with subcommittee: Jamie Janx Johnston, and Paul Epp.
- PAC to give notes
- Arrow trail partners and other interest holders will be looped in on this project prior to the call going out
- In the interest of pushing the project forward, no further funding will be sought
- Intention is to open the call in late Feb/early March

4 - Updates Wilkinson Memorial

- Unfortunately Ericka Walker is unavailable for 2026 timelines.
- Open call will have to be drafted. Committee discussed keeping the budget and specs the same, and writing the call for a County artist

- Artist selected by late spring, painting to begin in summer

5 - Updates H.J. Macfarland

- Sally McCubbin to be contracted to work in concert with H.J. staff and Stacey to budget the project and sort out timelines.

6 - Next Steps

- Discussion of buildings at Jack Taylor park as potentials for murals, Parks meeting with Chris and Stacey in February
- Victoria to introduce Chris and Stacey to developer for Queen Elizabeth redevelopment.

8 - Next steps/admin/next meeting - Next meeting in February, date TBC
